

2011 State Graduation Rate Breakdown

- 85.7 percent of public school students graduated within four years
- 6.1 percent of students are reported dropouts or undetermined (meaning they either dropped out or left school without formally withdrawing)
- 6.3 percent of students are still in school
- 0.4 percent of students earned a General Education Development (GED) diploma
- 1.2 percent of students earned a Special Education Certificate
- 0.2 percent of students earned a non-diploma Course Completion Certificate

2011 Public High School Graduation Rate Breakdown

- 90-100 percent graduation rate – 171 schools (45 percent)
- 80-89 percent graduation rate – 142 schools (38 percent)
- 70-79 percent graduation rate – 39 schools (10 percent)
- 60-69 percent graduation rate – 11 schools (3 percent)
- Less than 50 percent graduation rate – 14 schools (4 percent)

Other Notes

- 55% of public schools improved their graduation rate from 2010 to 2011
- 25% of public schools improved their graduation rate by at least 5 percentage points
- 80% of high school graduates received a Core40 or Honors diploma in 2011
- 58% of public schools increased the percentage of graduates to earn an honors diploma in 2011
- Only 6% of students from the Class of 2011 dropped out from high school
- Over half of Indiana public schools (54%) decreased their dropout rate from 2010 to 2011.