I worked extremely close with my 3rd grade team. We planned together at least once a week as well as had PLC meetings on Wednesday. I also worked closely with our Instructional Coach. We had weekly meetings during my first year of teaching and met periodically during my second year of teaching. She modeled lessons in my room and worked with me on my lessons. I was also able to watch other veteran teachers around the school. other first year teachers in my building once a month with my principal for support. I also met with the first year teachers in my school district once every couple months for some additional training and tips for how to be successful.

I received monthly mentoring from the math and literacy coach.
