N/A

I was mentored formally and informal while at Mississinewa High School and Tri-North Middle School during teacher pd sessions and PLC meetings.

My department is always willing to collaborate and give advice to newer teachers. Administrators are willing to meet with new teachers regarding classroom management questions.

I collaborated with teachers that were teaching the same subject area/grade level on content and best practices. I also worked with the teachers in my department to rewrite curriculum.

Worked with various other language arts teachers in the building and met with the head of the Language Arts department often to go over content, expectations, and other curriculum requirements.

N/A

Within the classroom, there were two other staff members that aided me in discussion making as well as managing the classroom. They showed me the culture within the school and classroom. I was able to view how case conferences happened and how parent-teacher conferences happened.

N/A

Mentoring from "team members" that teach the same grade
