I've received mentoring from several different teachers at Jasper Middle School, though none of them was my mentor teacher. I've also had constructive critiques from both my principal and vice principal.

While in my current position, I have had the opportunity to work alongside 2 Jr. High instrumental music instructors in gearing a 4th and 5th grade general music program to feed the instrumental program. In addition, I had the opportunity to work with 3 High School instrumental, general, and choral music teachers. I also participated in share meetings with other general music teachers across the district.

I am participating in a program called communities of practice. We are focusing on the pedagogy differentiated A district coach met with me twice in my first year of teaching regarding PBIS classroom procedures and Worked with an experienced teacher who acted as a mentor as I followed the course that he taught.

Other teachers have mentored me as well.

I wasn't directly paired with a mentor teacher, however, my school did have 2 academic coaches and I would meet with them when I had questions and they would assist me.

I completed a program called GCL (Growing Community Learners) that all teachers in Wayne township must complete within the first two years of teaching in the township. I went through a year and a half of New Teacher Academy at my school, Chapel Hill. I also worked closely with a mentor teacher in my field on my team of teachers who was available to help me with any issues I was having with curriculum or classroom management.

I work for a Cooperative so I have mentors from multiple different schools. I was lucky enough to have 3 supervisors who worked closely with me and I was able to attend multiple conferences to continue my
