

Teen Dating Violence Educational Materials Assessment Final Score Sheet

- The Indiana's Teen Dating Violence Educational Materials Review Rubrics document was used to guide the review process of each set of curricular materials.
 - Materials considered to be “curricular materials” would be a set of lessons and the supporting items (e.g. videos, posters, etc.), designed to be taught over a period of multiple sessions. All items submitted are considered as a whole when reviewing.
 - Those individual items not connected or intended to be used in conjunction with a curriculum (i.e. videos, DVDs, posters, brochures, etc.) are considered “resources”, and for the purposes of this review, were reviewed using the “Teen Dating Violence Educational Resource Material Review Form”.

Review Instructions:

1. Using the 1 – 5 scoring option listed in the rubrics, the score was determined for each element of each guideline in the rubric.
 2. Scores from each of the three reviewers for each of the elements of the Guidelines have been averaged and recorded in the appropriate column of the Score Sheet.
 3. The final score represents the total of all the scores assigned as the “Guideline Total”; and recorded in the grand total score box at the bottom of the Score Sheet.
