

Public School Corporation Name and Number:

3. Justification: Select one option

9595 East Chicago Lighthouse Charter	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9535 Cary Lighthouse Charter School	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
9880 Career Academy High School	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9965 Career Academy Middle School	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9960 Success Academy Primary School	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9905 Indiana Connections Academy	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
9400 IIPP Indy College Prep Middle	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
8810 SUSA Howe	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9845 Xavier School of Excellence	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9640 Options Charter School Noblesville	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9680 Paramount School Of Excellence Inc	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9465 Rural Community Schools Inc	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9980 Steel City Academy	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9645 Avondale Meadows Academy	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9350 Timothy L Johnson Academy	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.

9310 Charter School of the Dunes	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9670 Indianapolis Metropolitan High Sch	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9835 The Bloomington Project School	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
9985 Seven Oaks Classical School	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
5350 M S D Pike Township	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
2315 Coshen Community Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
6155 Paoli Community School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
2855 Mississinewa Community School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
6995 Rush County Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
8060 Wabash City Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
2155 Fairfield Community Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
1160 Clinton Prairie School Corporation	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6715 North Putnam Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
8050 M S D Wabash County Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
4740 School Town of Munster	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6325 Perry Central Com Schools Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.

6060 East Noble School Corporation	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
1170 Community Schools of Frankfort	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
4455 Whitko Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
1180 Rossville Con School District	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
2110 Southwest Dubois Co Sch Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
5855 Crawfordsville Community Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
5075 North Lawrence Com Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4925 Michigan City Area Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
8205 Salem Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
0035 South Adams Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
7855 Lafayette School Corporation	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4650 Lake Ridge New Tech Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
5615 Maconaquah School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
4650 Lake Ridge New Tech Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4660 Brown Point Community School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
6895 Batesville Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.

0015	Adams Central Community Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
8385	Richmond Community Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4670	School City of East Chicago	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
5375	M S D Wayne Township	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation. c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
2305	Elkhart Community Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
5705	Richland-Bean Blossom C S C	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7445	South Spencer County Sch Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
3490	Western School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
5945	North Newton School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6160	Springs Valley Com School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7935	Tri-Central Community Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
4700	Griffith Public Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
2120	Greater Jasper Consolidated Schs	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
5485	Plymouth Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
5995	South Newton School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
5300	M S D Decatur Township	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.

4680	Lake Station Community Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
3180	North Harrison Com School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation. c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
1010	Greater Clark County Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
1970	Muncie Community Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
5740	Monroe County Community Sch Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
5385	Indianapolis Public Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6445	Pike County School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4645	Tri-Creek School Corporation	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4710	School City of Hammond	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
7255	Scott County School District 2	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
7175	Penn-Harris-Madison School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
0025	North Adams Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7150	John Glenn School Corporation	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
8445	M S D Bluffton-Harrison	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.

8435	Northern Wells Com Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
8665	Whitley Co Cons Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%. c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
4415	Warsaw Community Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
3330	Plainfield Community School Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
7775	Switzerland County School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
8020	South Vermillion Com Sch Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
0815	Lewis Cass Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
5380	Beech Grove City Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7515	North Judson-San Pierre Sch Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
0395	Benton Community School Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
8030	Wigo County School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
1000	Clarksville Community School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
5275	Anderson Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7715	Southwest School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
5635	Peru Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.

0235	Fort Wayne Community Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
1655	Decatur County Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7200	School City of Mishawaka	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
8130	Warrick County School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4445	Tippecanoe Valley School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7605	Fremont Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
1835	DeKalb Co Ctl United Sch Dist	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
6065	West Noble School Corporation	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3055	Sheridan Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3995	Madison Consolidated Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3190	South Harrison Com Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
4255	Lineveh-Hensley-Jackson United	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7525	Knox Community School Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
0515	Blackford County Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.

4590 River Forest Community Sch Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
2865 Marion Community Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
8625 Smith-Green Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3145 Eastern Hancock Co Com Sch Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
5910 Eminence Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
8535 Tri-County School Corporation	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6865 South Ripley Com Sch Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6350 Tell City-Troy Twp School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
5900 Monroe-Gregg School District	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
1560 Sunman-Dearborn Com Sch Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
2475 Franklin County Community Sch Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6590 M S D Mount Vernon	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6340 Cannelton City Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
1620 Lawrenceburg Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6910 Milan Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6630 West Central School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.

7495 Oregon-Davis School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6600 M S D North Posey Co Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
2645 Rochester Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
8220 West Washington School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
8115 M S D Warren County	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3330 Plainfield Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
0225 Northwest Allen County Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
0665 Lebanon Community School Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
6825 Randolph Central School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
5255 South Madison Com Sch Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4525 Westview School Corporation	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
2920 Bloomfield School District	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
5930 Mooresville Con School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
5265 Alexandria Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
0255 East Allen County Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.

2400	New Albany-Floyd Co Con Sch	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
4760	School City of Whiting	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
5495	Triton School Corporation	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
2155	Fairfield Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
4015	Pennings County School Corporation	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
7945	Dipton Community School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
7615	M S D Steuben County	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6195	Spencer-Owen Community Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
7285	Shelby Eastern Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
1730	Greensburg Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
2825	Madison-Grant United School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
0615	Western Boone Co Com Sch Dist	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
4945	LaPorte Community School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
5360	M S D Warren Township	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
5470	Argos Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.

2765 South Gibson School Corporation	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
8565 Twin Lakes School Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
7205 South Bend Community School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4245 Greenwood Community Sch Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
7495 Oregon-Davis School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7365 Shelbyville Central Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4345 Wawasee Community School Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
5910 Eminence Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
2725 East Gibson School Corporation	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
5480 Bremen Public Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3005 Hamilton Southeastern Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
6795 Union School Corporation	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7645 Northeast School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6900 Pac-Cen-Del Community Sch Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.

1895 Liberty-Perry Community Sch Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3305 Brownsburg Community School Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
1820 Barrett-Keyser-Butler Com Sch Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
5330 M S D Lawrence Township	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
7350 Northwestern Con School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3030 Westfield-Washington Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4690 Gary Community School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
2395 Fayette County School Corporation	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
6550 Portage Township Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
7610 Hamilton Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
1405 Washington Community Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
0630 Zionsville Community Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
1875 Delaware Community School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
0940 West Clark Community Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.

8045 Manchester Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7360 Southwestern Con Sch Shelby Co	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3625 Huntington Co Com Sch Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
7385 North Spencer County Sch Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
0365 Bartholomew Con School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
0670 Brown County School Corporation	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6520 Porter Township School Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
6560 Valparaiso Community Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
4205 Center Grove Community School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
3945 Day School Corporation	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
3135 Mt Vernon Community School Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
3785 Kankakee Valley School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
2950 Clinton-Stockton School Corporation	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7230 Scott County School District 1	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
5625 Oak Hill United School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.

8360 Centerville-Abington Com Schs	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6705 South Putnam Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3710 Crothersville Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7950 Union Co/Clg Corner Joint Sch Dist	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
2040 Northeast Dubois Co Sch Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%. c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
3815 Rensselaer Central School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
8305 Nettle Creek School Corporation	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3455 A Beard Memorial School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
3675 Seymour Community Schools	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
3445 New Castle Community School Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
2285 Wa-Nee Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6055 Central Noble Com School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
6350 Tell City-Troy Twp School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
7995 Evansville Vanderburgh School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
7865 Tippecanoe School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3480 Eastern Howard School Corporation

4335	Vincennes Community School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4615	Lake Central School Corporation	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4525	Westview School Corporation	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation. b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6080	Rising Sun-Ohio Co Com	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3335	Mill Creek Community Sch Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
8515	North White School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
7615	M S D Steuben County	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
2435	Attica Consolidated School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6750	Cloverdale Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3295	North West Hendricks Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%. c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
2645	Rochester Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
4215	Edinburgh Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
3325	Danville Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
0370	Flat Rock-Hawcreek School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
5370	M S D Washington Township	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation. c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
7215	Union-North United School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.

4145 Clark-Pleasant Community Sch Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
7215 Union-North United School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
4600 Merrillville Community School	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
2815 Eastbrook Community Sch Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%. c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
0875 Bogansport Community Sch Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
5085 Mitchell Community Schools	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
1125 Clay Community Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
6820 Monroe Central School Corp	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
2735 North Gibson School Corp	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
3500 Kokomo School Corporation	c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.
1375 North Daviess Com Schools	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
1160 Clinton Prairie School Corporation	a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.
1600 South Dearborn Community Sch Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
5280 Elwood Community School Corp	b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.
2100 Southeast Dubois Co Sch Corp

8355 Western Wayne Schools

b. The corporation has a small overall student population and it takes only a few students participating in the alternate assessment to exceed 1%.

c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.

6755 Greencastle Community School Corp

c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.

0035 South Adams Schools

a. School, community, or health program(s) draw large numbers of families of students with a significant cognitive disabilities to live in the corporation.

c. Other-provide a brief justification of variables not covered in the previous two options that may contribute to a higher number of students identified with a significant cognitive disabilities participating in the alternate assessment.

0025 North Adams Community Schools