Read this information.

There is a street near Oakdale School that does not have a crosswalk. Some students from the school and their parents are concerned about safety while crossing the street. A meeting is held to discuss what to do. Some of the people write letters to the city council to ask for a crosswalk. The local newspaper also publishes letters from parents that explain the problem and ask for support. Later, a group of concerned citizens gathers in front of City Hall to show support for a crosswalk. The citizens carry signs that say “We Need a Crosswalk” and “Safety First.”

Individual rights of citizens are guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. Name TWO rights included in the Bill of Rights that the members of the group used.

1) The group used is freedom of speech.

2) The group used is freedom of press, newspaper, news, and local news.

Describe ONE way the members of the group are being good citizens.

The members are worried that their children could get hurt.
Read this information.

There is a street near Oakdale School that does not have a crosswalk. Some students from the school and their parents are concerned about safety while crossing the street. A meeting is held to discuss what to do. Some of the people write letters to the city council to ask for a crosswalk. The local newspaper also publishes letters from parents that explain the problem and ask for support. Later, a group of concerned citizens gathers in front of City Hall to show support for a crosswalk. The citizens carry signs that say “We Need a Crosswalk” and “Safety First.”

Individual rights of citizens are guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. Name TWO rights included in the Bill of Rights that the members of the group used.

1) Freedom of speech.

2) Freedom to petition the government.

Describe ONE way the members of the group are being good citizens.

They are trying to encourage the safety of the citizens.

2 pts

The response contains two correct rights stated in the Bill of Rights used by the members of the group (Freedom of speech; Freedom to petition of the government) (rubric bullets 2 and 3), and one correct way the members of the group are being good citizens (helping support their community).
Read this information.

There is a street near Oakdale School that does not have a crosswalk. Some students from the school and their parents are concerned about safety while crossing the street. A meeting is held to discuss what to do. Some of the people write letters to the city council to ask for a crosswalk. The local newspaper also publishes letters from parents that explain the problem and ask for support. Later, a group of concerned citizens gathers in front of City Hall to show support for a crosswalk. The citizens carry signs that say "We Need a Crosswalk" and "Safety First."

Individual rights of citizens are guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. Name TWO rights included in the Bill of Rights that the members of the group used.

1) One right is the freedom of speech.

2) Another right is freedom of the press.

Describe ONE way the members of the group are being good citizens.

They are on strike for a crosswalk to keep children safe.

2 pts

The response contains two correct rights stated in the Bill of Rights used by the members of the group (freedom of speech; freedom of the press), and one correct way the members of the group are being good citizens (keep children safe).
Read this information.

There is a street near Oakdale School that does not have a crosswalk. Some students from the school and their parents are concerned about safety while crossing the street. A meeting is held to discuss what to do. Some of the people write letters to the city council to ask for a crosswalk. The local newspaper also publishes letters from parents that explain the problem and ask for support. Later, a group of concerned citizens gathers in front of City Hall to show support for a crosswalk. The citizens carry signs that say “We Need a Crosswalk” and “Safety First.”

Individual rights of citizens are guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. Name TWO rights included in the Bill of Rights that the members of the group used.

1) Freedom of Speech.

2) Freedom to gather together.

Describe ONE way the members of the group are being good citizens.

They are concerned for the safety of the people.

The response contains two correct rights stated in the Bill of Rights used by the members of the group (Freedom of speech; Freedom to gather together) (rubric bullets 2 and 1), and one correct way the members of the group are being good citizens (concern for the safety of the people).
Read this information.

There is a street near Oakdale School that does not have a crosswalk. Some students from the school and their parents are concerned about safety while crossing the street. A meeting is held to discuss what to do. Some of the people write letters to the city council to ask for a crosswalk. The local newspaper also publishes letters from parents that explain the problem and ask for support. Later, a group of concerned citizens gathers in front of City Hall to show support for a crosswalk. The citizens carry signs that say "We Need a Crosswalk" and "Safety First."

Individual rights of citizens are guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. Name TWO rights included in the Bill of Rights that the members of the group used.

1) They held a meeting.

2) They wrote letters to the council.

Describe ONE way the members of the group are being good citizens.

They are making sure people are safe.

1 pt

The response contains no correct rights stated in the Bill of Rights used by the members of the group. Neither simply holding a meeting or writing letters to the city council is clearly stated well enough as a right to receive credit. A response must contain two correct rights to receive credit for the first portion of the response.

The response contains one correct way the members of the group are being good citizens (making sure people are safe).
Read this information.

There is a street near Oakdale School that does not have a crosswalk. Some students from the school and their parents are concerned about safety while crossing the street. A meeting is held to discuss what to do. Some of the people write letters to the city council to ask for a crosswalk. The local newspaper also publishes letters from parents that explain the problem and ask for support. Later, a group of concerned citizens gathers in front of City Hall to show support for a crosswalk. The citizens carry signs that say “We Need a Crosswalk” and “Safety First.”

Individual rights of citizens are guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. Name TWO rights included in the Bill of Rights that the members of the group used.

1) They need to provide safety for the children.
2) The crosswalk should have already put a crosswalk in when they built it.

Describe ONE way the members of the group are being good citizens.

They are actually thinking that it is better to be safe than sorry.

1 pt

The response contains no correct rights stated in the Bill of Rights used by the members of the group. A response must contain two correct rights to receive credit for the first portion of the response.

The response contains one correct way the members of the group are being good citizens (better to be safe than sorry).
Read this information.

There is a street near Oakdale School that does not have a crosswalk. Some students from the school and their parents are concerned about safety while crossing the street. A meeting is held to discuss what to do. Some of the people write letters to the city council to ask for a crosswalk. The local newspaper also publishes letters from parents that explain the problem and ask for support. Later, a group of concerned citizens gathers in front of City Hall to show support for a crosswalk. The citizens carry signs that say “We Need a Crosswalk” and “Safety First.”

Individual rights of citizens are guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. Name TWO rights included in the Bill of Rights that the members of the group used.

1) Executive Branch—Laws will get passed from here to the legislative branch.

2) Judicial Branch—and after that this group decides on it.

Describe ONE way the members of the group are being good citizens.

They want their kids on the safe side.

1 pt

The response contains no correct rights stated in the Bill of Rights used by the members of the group. A response must contain two correct rights to receive credit for the first portion of the response. The response contains one correct way the members of the group are being good citizens (They want their kids on the safe side).
Read this information.

There is a street near Oakdale School that does not have a crosswalk. Some students from the school and their parents are concerned about safety while crossing the street. A meeting is held to discuss what to do. Some of the people write letters to the city council to ask for a crosswalk. The local newspaper also publishes letters from parents that explain the problem and ask for support. Later, a group of concerned citizens gathers in front of City Hall to show support for a crosswalk. The citizens carry signs that say “We Need a Crosswalk” and “Safety First.”

Individual rights of citizens are guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. Name TWO rights included in the Bill of Rights that the members of the group used.

1) one right is being a crosswalk.

2) another right is supporting people.

Describe ONE way the members of the group are being good citizens.

They are being good citizens by doing right.

0 pts

The response contains no correct rights stated in the Bill of Rights used by the members of the group (to support the citizens; and safe citizens). A response must contain two correct rights to receive credit for the first portion of the response.

The response contains no correct ways the members of the group are being good citizens (They are being good citizens by doing right). This is not clear enough to be considered making the community safer.
Read this information.

There is a street near Oakdale School that does not have a crosswalk. Some students from the school and their parents are concerned about safety while crossing the street. A meeting is held to discuss what to do. Some of the people write letters to the city council to ask for a crosswalk. The local newspaper also publishes letters from parents that explain the problem and ask for support. Later, a group of concerned citizens gathers in front of City Hall to show support for a crosswalk. The citizens carry signs that say “We Need a Crosswalk” and “Safety First.”

Individual rights of citizens are guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. Name TWO rights included in the Bill of Rights that the members of the group used.

1) There is a street near Oakdale School that does not have a crosswalk.
2) Some parents are concerned about their children’s safety.

Describe ONE way the members of the group are being good citizens.

By helping kids cross street.

0 pts

The response contains no correct rights stated in the Bill of Rights used by the members of the group. A response must contain two correct rights to receive credit for the first portion of the response.

The response contains no correct ways the members of the group are being good citizens (by helping kids cross street). This is not clear enough to be considered making the community safer.
Read this information.

There is a street near Oakdale School that does not have a crosswalk. Some students from the school and their parents are concerned about safety while crossing the street. A meeting is held to discuss what to do. Some of the people write letters to the city council to ask for a crosswalk. The local newspaper also publishes letters from parents that explain the problem and ask for support. Later, a group of concerned citizens gathers in front of City Hall to show support for a crosswalk. The citizens carry signs that say “We Need a Crosswalk” and “Safety First.”

Individual rights of citizens are guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. Name TWO rights included in the Bill of Rights that the members of the group used.

1) __________

2) __________

Describe ONE way the members of the group are being good citizens.

__________

0 pts

The response contains no correct rights stated in the Bill of Rights used by the members of the group. A response must contain two correct rights to receive credit for the first portion of the response.

The response contains no correct ways the members of the group are being good citizens (if they get a crosswalk). This is not clear enough to be considered making the community safer.