RE: High School Assessment Funding
DATE: June 3, 2019

The Indiana General Assembly enacted a new biennial budget \(HEA 1001\) for the State of Indiana in Spring 2019. This memo delineates the funds allocated for commonly used high school testing programs and provides a brief description of how those funds may be used. Specific guidance for each assessment will be provided at a later date.

Preliminary SAT (PSAT/NMSQT) Testing

The State of Indiana provides funding (up to $1,900,000) for Grades 10 and 11 students of accredited public and nonpublic schools to participate in the PSAT assessment.

Advanced Placement (AP) Testing

The State of Indiana provides funding (up to $5,200,000) for students of accredited public and nonpublic schools to take the College Board Advanced Placement (AP) Mathematics, English/Language Arts, and Science exams.

International Baccalaureate (IB) Testing

The State of Indiana no longer provides funds to support International Baccalaureate (IB) testing.
