

New Neighbors Education Center
INDIANA UNIVERSITY SOUTHEAST
743 Hausfeldt Lane
Director: Dr. Donna Albrecht
New Albany, IN 47150
Phone (812) 941-2594
Email: dalbrec@iu.edu

Professional Development Opportunities 2018-2019

Contact Donna Albrecht for more information.

Cohort model for the following topics including fall and spring full day sessions, action research, and online follow up featuring expert practitioners. Dates to be determined:

- Evidence based practices for teaching English learners in the content areas for elementary
- Evidence based practices for teaching English learners in the content areas for secondary
- Cohort and collaboration for English as a New Language coordinators

Other topics for single day PD sessions. Dates to be determined:

- Family Engagement Strategies that Work
- Implementation of WIDA Framework for Differentiation of Academic Content for Different Language Proficiency Levels
- Working with High Ability/Gifted English learners (identification and teaching strategies)
- Working with Special Needs English learners (identification and teaching strategies - collaboration between IEP and ILP)
- Cultural Competency and Cross-Cultural Communication
- Other topics or individual consultation available for school corporations.

Costs: Between $125-$200 per person per session depending on the number of participants from one school corporation and topic. Please contact the director for details.

The New Neighbors Education Center was developed through a Title III National Professional Development Grant

See the research report: <https://www.ius.edu/education/files/new-neighbors/nnc-report.pdf>