

Cohort 1 members will participate in the following:

- Three-day immersive learning workshop, July 15-17, 2019
 - Location: Indianapolis area
 - Who: Any certified staff member motivated to provide professional development to teachers in the district - administrators, teachers of all content areas, as well as instructional coaches are appropriate participants
 - Accommodations will be provided
 - Cohort participants who successfully complete all required training, including the final four day workshop in the summer of 2020, will receive a $1000 stipend
- Monthly, 60 minute interactive virtual STEM Professional Learning Community coaching sessions (five each semester) held outside of the instructional day
- Up to three online, interactive training sessions with subject-matter experts held outside of the instructional day
- Four-day immersive learning workshop, Summer 2020
- Year-long training completion will result in participants becoming certified Ford NGL STEM PBL Trainers equipped and expected to train educators in PBL approaches to learning.

Learn more about Ford Next Generation Learning (NGL) here.