

MEMORANDUM

TO: Superintendents and Principals

FROM: Jason Bailey, Senior eLearning Strategist, jbailey@doe.in.gov

DATE: March 21, 2018

SUBJECT: Summer of eLearning – Register Now

Now is the time to make your plans to attend a Summer of eLearning Conference! Summer 2018 will feature 19 conferences across the state, and links to all of the opportunities are now available on the IDOE website. These events are always a source of quality digital learning PD hosted by great Indiana districts, often in partnership with one another. This year they will also provide sessions to help you gear up STEM and computer science offerings in your district. We hope that you will encourage all of your teachers to attend and bring your administrators as well! All conferences are less than $25 a day, and several are free! Don't miss out!
