

National Center on Deaf-Blindness

NCDB is part of a network of projects for children and youth with deaf-blindness (birth through 21) that includes state deaf-blind projects in every state, funded by the U.S. Department of Education.

Deaf-Blind Information-An overview of deaf-blindness, resources on educational practices in children and youth who are deaf-blind, and National Child Count information. Get Information

Family Resources-Contact details for key organizations and services, family learning opportunities, and materials on topics relevant to families, posted monthly. Find Resources

State Project Resources-Information about NCDB support for state deaf-blind projects and tools and resources for projects to use in their technical assistance. Learn More

