The Allen County School Safety Commission, Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne, and the Indiana School Safety Specialist Academy Present:

"Applicant Interviewing Techniques and Strategies"

Presented by:

Joseph P. Buckley III, President of John E. Reid and Associates, forensic interviewer, detection of deception examiner, lecturer and consultant

For over sixty years, John E. Reid and Associates has been conducting pre-employment interviews of applicants applying for positions of public trust. In this one-day training course, participants will learn interviewing techniques and strategies that will significantly enhance their ability to identify high-risk applicants before they become problem employees.

Participants will learn how to:
Recognize when an applicant is withholding relevant information.
Identify when a candidate has falsified information on the application.
Develop admissions of wrongdoing when the candidate initially tried to conceal information.
Assess the overall integrity of candidates for employment.

Joseph Buckley is co-author of three books: The Investigator Anthology; Criminal Interrogation and Confessions; and Essentials of The Reid Technique, as well as numerous articles and papers. He is a contributing author to The Encyclopedia of Police Science and the Encyclopedia of Security Management. He is a member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the American Society for Industrial Security, the American Management Association, the Chicago Crime Commission, as well as numerous other professional organizations. Mr. Buckley has lectured extensively to law enforcement, government and business groups.

Cost: There is no cost for this training. Professional Growth Points, CEU’s and Law Enforcement hours will be available.
