

Indiana Department of Education Disproportionality Statement

As the Indiana Department of Education (IDOE) is strongly committed to providing all kids quality educational opportunities; the IDOE will analyze and discuss all data indicating racial and other disproportionality when it comes to school discipline decisions and other issues. The IDOE will encourage community discussion on these disproportionalities in student learning and treatment. The department will work with educators, parents, students and civic leaders to draw attention to this important issue.

To visit the Indiana Civil Rights Commission, click here.